Toastmasters Club Constitution for Member Clubs of Toastmasters International

Article I: Purpose

The purpose of a Toastmasters Member Club is to provide a mutually supportive and positive learning environment in which every individual member has the opportunity to develop oral communication and leadership skills, which in turn foster self-confidence and personal growth.

To carry out this purpose, this club shall:

- ▶ Help its individual members improve their abilities to communicate effectively
- ▶ Provide for its individual members' instructions, educational materials and opportunities which will give them skill and experience in the preparation and delivery of speeches
- ▶ Encourage its individual members to read and to listen analytically
- ▶ Provide for its individual members' fair and constructive evaluation of their efforts toward self improvement
- ▶ Increase its individual members' knowledge of the rules of parliamentary procedure and their skills in conducting meetings and participating in group discussions
- ▶ Provide leadership training for its individual members
- ▶ Provide opportunities and encouragement for its individual members to appear before audiences and to express their thoughts with credibility and confidence

Article II: Membership

Composition

Section 1

All individual members of this club shall be at least 18 years of age. No persons shall be excluded from individual membership in, or from any program or activity of, this club because of age (except those persons under 18 years of age), race, color, creed, gender, gender identity, gender expression, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, or physical or mental disability, so long as the individuals, through their own effort, are able to participate in the program. However, the Addendum of Standard Club Options (hereafter referred to as the "Addendum") under the constitution may provide for other restrictions on the composition of the individual membership, e.g., to the employees of a particular company or agency, residents of a specific community, or people sharing a special interest.

Admission to Membership

Section 2

This club is a private association, and membership herein shall be by invitation only. Any individual member may sponsor an eligible prospective individual member, and invite that individual to join this club, so long as the person is not currently suspended or removed from good standing with Toastmasters International under Article III, Section 8, of the Bylaws of Toastmasters International. Application for individual membership shall be made on the form provided by Toastmasters International. Such application shall be returned to a club officer who shall read it to this club.

The applicant shall be declared elected to individual membership upon the favorable vote of at least a majority of the active individual members of this club present and voting at a business meeting of the club membership. The new member fee and membership dues shall then be remitted to Toastmasters International by the club or by the individual member when verified by a club officer. The individual membership of this club may be divided into three (3) classifications: active, inactive, and honorary.

Active Membership/Member Responsibilities

Section 3

Active individual membership is conferred upon a paid member in good standing with Toastmasters International. Active individual members attend club meetings, have voting privileges, may be elected as an officer of the club, shall be counted towards a quorum of the club membership, may participate in speech contests if they fulfill the other eligibility criteria, and may have a place on the regular speaker's program.

All active individual members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this club, and shall share in its responsibilities. These responsibilities shall include support of its purposes and constructive contribution to its program and activities.

Inactive and Honorary Membership

Section 4

Inactive individual membership is provided for as follows:

- (a) Inactive individual membership in this club may be conferred by the executive committee of this club on any individual member requesting an extended absence from club meetings, or who wishes to maintain individual membership without regular attendance at club meetings. An individual member may also be classified as inactive for continued absence without notice. An inactive individual member may be restored to active individual membership by the Club Executive Committee upon request, provided there is a vacancy on the active roster of this club.
- (b) Inactive individual members shall have no voting privileges, shall not hold office, shall not be counted toward a quorum of the club membership, and shall not participate in speech contests.

They are not entitled to places on the regular speakers' program but may serve as substitutes when requested by the Club President or the Toastmaster of the meeting. They may also participate in club discussions and serve as evaluators.

However, this club may count any inactive individual members toward qualification for minimum Toastmasters International standards for Member Clubs. Inactive individual members shall pay at least such portion of their club dues as this club pays to Toastmasters International as the membership payment for such inactive individual member, and shall pay any additional amount specified in the addendum.

Section 5

Honorary individual membership may be conferred upon any qualified person by the favorable vote of at least two-thirds of the active individual members of this club at a club business meeting. Such membership shall be restricted to persons whose activities and public statements are consistent with the purposes of Toastmasters International. Honorary individual members have no voting privileges, shall not hold office, shall not be counted toward a quorum of the club membership, and shall not participate in speech contests. They are not entitled to places on the regular speakers' program and cannot participate in club discussions or serve as evaluators, but may serve as substitutes when requested by the Club President or the Toastmaster of the meeting.

No dues or fees for honorary individual members are collected nor are any dues paid to Toastmasters International. The term of honorary membership is specified by the club in the addendum.

Discipline/Expel/Suspend/Decline to Renew Membership

Section 6

This club may establish routine procedures for dropping individual members who fail to pay club dues, who miss a certain number of meetings, or who fall below other minimum standards as determined by the club or Toastmasters International.

This club may discipline, expel, suspend, or decline to renew club membership of any individual member

- ▶ Who does not support this club's purposes
- ▶ Who does not constructively contribute to this club's program and activities
- ▶ Who acts in a manner inconsistent with standards of conduct set by this club or by Toastmasters International
- ▶ For other just cause

Such standards include ethical, political, and other standards of conduct that may be established or modified by the Toastmasters International Board of Directors. This club shall follow such Policy and Protocol as may be adopted by Toastmasters International, containing standards and procedures for the continuation of individual members.

If this club does not expel an individual member for violations of Toastmasters International standards of conduct, after written request to do so is made by the International President, this club may be expelled from Toastmasters International unless its failure to act can be justified to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors.

Article III: Club Dues and New Member Fees

Section 2

The club new member fee for individual membership shall be as stated in the addendum. Such fee shall be payable when an individual membership application is filed with a club officer. When an applicant for individual membership in this club transfers from another Toastmasters club and presents documentation from said club showing individual membership in good standing and that their membership payment to Toastmasters International is paid for the current period, the applicant may be elected to individual membership without payment of the new member fee to Toastmasters International, and upon payment of any transfer fee stated in the addendum.

Unless any such resignation is, by its terms, effective on a later date, it shall be effective on delivery to such club officer, and no acceptance by this club shall be required to make it effective. Any officer of this club may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by majority vote of all active individual members present and voting at a business meeting at which quorum is present.
